

German IT Round-Table - Panel Discussions

03/03/2008 - Rathaus, Stuttgart

Topics

Panel - I: Global IT Sourcing for German Mittelstand
Panel - II: Service Oriented Architecture

Schedule & Duration

Duration of each panel discussion is 25 minutes. Panels will be held between 14.30 – 15.30 on 03/03/2008

Discussion Points

Panel - I: Global IT Sourcing for Mittelstand

Moderator: Mr. Gunjan Bharadwaj

1. Successful global IT sourcing models for Mittelstand
2. Key Operative Problems in Global IT Sourcing: context Germany + India
3. Will global sourcing have an impact on German IT/software innovation?
 1. How can global sourcing improve IT innovation in Germany?
4. Will global sourcing help increase IT export potential of Germany?
 1. Which are the areas where Germany is best positioned for IT/software exports?
 2. Which markets are potential targets for German IT exports? Do emerging markets of India and China hold export potential?

Panel - II: Service Oriented Architecture

Moderator: Mr. Ashant Chalasani

1. Is the German Mittelstand ready to make the transition to SOA?
2. How can global SOA methodologies be used in Germany?
3. What are the pitfalls that can be avoided in SOA transitions?
4. Is SOA a suitable architecture for small sized enterprises? What are some feasible models for implementing SOA in small organizations?

Contact

Panel moderators can be contact prior to the event for questions & clarifications at below coordinates

Gunjan Bharadwaj gunjan.bharadwaj@de.ey.com, +49-711-9881-21732
Ashant Chalasani ashant.chalasani@euroblaze.de, +49-7154-82-7130